Ed Hardy fashion show

Hipsters can take in the Ed Hardy Fashion Experience Friday at Metropolis Nightclub, 2325 Elm St., in Cleveland's Flats.

The artistic clothing line, known for its combination of tattoo designs and luxurious materials, will be modeled in a runway presentation. Organizers promise local celebrities, DJ Rush and Jeremy Jackson, plus "10 of the hottest models on the East Coast."

Goodness.

Doors open at 9 p.m. Tickets are $15 in advance or $20 at the door; go here or call 216-241-1444.

'Green & Gorgeous'

When an invitation comes in that reads, "Grab your gal pals and kick back for an evening of Earth-friendly pampering," PD Style Team members hardly can wait to make our reservations.

And when it's for a good cause, we pick up the phone and ask how we can get involved.

"Fixations: Green & Gorgeous" is the latest fund-raising event for the good folks at PetFix Northeast Ohio, the mobile spay/neuter clinic that fights pet overpopulation.

The night will include gourmet munchies, sensory journeys and aromatherapy from Aveda experts; polish changes and chair massages from John Roberts Hair Studio and Spa; and eyebrow makeovers from John Roberts' brow guru, Lisa Adams.

There also will be informal modeling of eco-friendly fashion from Cleveland's Anne van H. boutique, belly-dancing demonstrations, henna tattoos, tarot-card readings and a silent auction that includes jewelry, yoga classes, pet services and more. The Barkley Pet Hotel & Day Spa will do "makeovers" on shelter dogs during the event, all the better to ready them for adoption.

Tickets are $85 for regular admission or $135 for early patron admission, which will include fashion advice from the PD Style Team and a handcrafted silver charm by Gai Russo.

The event is from 6 to 10 p.m. Wednesday, July 23, at the Club at Hillbrook, 14800 Hillbrook Drive, Chagrin Falls. Call 440-247-8931, or go here.

Stitchin' time

On Thursday, expect to put down the baseball gloves and pick up some knitting needles at Progressive Field.

Along with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, the Cleveland Indians will host the third annual "Stitch N' Pitch" at 7:05 p.m. Thursday. Hundreds of fans will gather to

This year, Stitch N' Pitch will raise awareness for the Needle Arts Mentoring Program, a group that teaches the needle arts to schoolchildren. Cleveland's SuccessTech Academy participates in the mentoring program.

Proceeds from each Stitch N' Pitch ticket sold will go to the program. For more information or to purchase tickets, call 216-420-HITS (4487) or go to www.indians.com. To learn more about the program, visit here.

Flat-out success

The Cleveland area is home to another winner -- FHI Heat, one of the hair industry's leading manufacturers of professional hair tools. The company's Platform SE model was recently voted "Favorite Flat Iron" by the readers of American Salon magazine in the publication's Professional Choice Awards.

"There is a reason why our Platform SE is our best-selling iron. It delivers high heat and amazing results, creating styles that last longer, and saves time spent in the chair," says Les Haverty, artistic director for FHI Heat, based in Greater Cleveland.

The FHI Heat Platform SE retails for $195. Order one by calling 1-877-344-4328 or go here.
